VIII. INFORMATION ON THE NATIONAL SYSTEM OF HIGHER EDUCATION

1. Criteria of access to the national system of higher education

The total number of years of primary and secondary education is 12 or 15. At the end of the secondary education cycle the student can take the maturity examination (egzamin dojrzałości - matura), i.e. standardised national secondary school achievement examination, and receives the maturity certificate (świadectwo dojrzałości), which allows him to apply for admission to a higher education institution.

2. Higher education system

The system of higher education and the basis of its functioning are defined by the Act of 27 July 2005 - Law on Higher Education. The provisions of the Act are applied to public and non-public higher education institutions, and the degree programmes of studies are provided under the same rules and after complying with the same conditions. The higher education institutions, irrespective of their statutes, are divided into a university-type higher education institution and a non-university higher education institution. A university-type higher education institution is a higher education institution in which at least one organizational unit is authorized to confer the academic degree of doctor.

A non-university higher education institution is a higher education institution providing first-cycle, second-cycle or long-cycle programmes which is not authorized to confer the academic degree of doctor.

The degree programmes at the higher education institutions are provided as first-cycle programmes, second-cycle programmes, long-cycle programmes, and third-cycle programmes (doctoral programmes).

First-cycle programmes leading to the degree of licencjat last between six and eight semesters, and first-cycle programmes leading to the degree of inżynier last seven or eight semesters.

Second-cycle programmes leading to the degree of magister last three or four semesters. Long-cycle programmes leading to the degree of magister last between nine and twelve semesters.

Doctoral programmes cannot exceed four years and their graduates receive certificates of completion of doctoral studies. In a separate procedure they receive the academic degree of doktor of a specific field of science or doktor within a scope of art. Degree programmes and doctoral studies are provided as full-time programmes and part-time programmes.

3. Titles awarded to graduates of higher education institutions

- licencjat, licencjat pielęgniarstwa (in nursery) or licencjat położnictwa (in midwifery), inżynier, inżynier pożarnictwa (in fire-fighting), inżynier architekt (in architecture) and inżynier architekt krajobrazu (in landscape) - awarded to the graduates of the first-cycle programmes;

- magister or an equivalent degree: magister sztuki (in the field of fine arts), magister farmacji (in pharmacy), magister inżynier, magister inżynier architekt, magister inżynier krajobrazu (in landscape), magister inżynier pożarnictwa (in fire-fighting), magister pielęgniarstwa (in nursery), magister położnictwa (in midwifery), lekarz (in the field of medicine), lekarz dentysta (in the field of dentistry), lekarz weterynarii (in the field of veterinary).

4. Credit points - ECTS

The number of ECTS (European Credit Transfer System) points provided by the curriculum of one semester studies is 27 up to 33, and for the whole academical year is 60. The number of points for the completion of the first-cycle programme is 180 up to 240; for the completion of the second-cycle programme is 90 up to 120, and for the completion of the long-cycle programme is 270 up to 360.

5. Academic degrees, degrees in the field of fine arts, academic titles, a title in the field of fine arts

The academic degrees are the degrees of doktor and doktor habilitowany of a specified field of science within the scope of a given discipline of science.

The degrees within the scope of art are the degrees of doktor sztuki and doktor habilitowany sztuki of a specified field of fine arts within a scope of a given discipline of fine arts.

Academic degrees are awarded by organizational units of higher education institutions, the Polish Academy of Sciences, and by other scientific and research institutes.

The academic title is the title of profesor of a specified field of science, the title within the scope of fine arts is the title of profesor of a specified field of fine arts. The title of profesor is conferred by the President of the Republic of Poland.
