

MA EXAM THESES FOR: PHILOSOPHY AND CULTURE OF EAST-CENTRAL EUROPE. EXPERIENCE AND THOUGHT

(SINCE ACADEMIC YEAR 2019/2020)

1. The theory of just war, presented by Polish legal scholars at the Council of Constance (1414-1418), as related to the basic principles of modern international law.
2. The key elements of the republican tradition underlying the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth of the 16th-18th centuries.
3. The response of Polish political philosophy to the demolition of the Polish state at the end of the 18th century.
4. A vision of new morality in totalitarian systems: Communism, Fascism and National Socialism
5. The genesis of the Lviv-Warsaw school and the characteristics of its stages of activity.
6. Jan Łukasiewicz and his contribution to the development of modern logic
7. The ethical implications of the idea of solidarity promoted by the Polish democratic opposition in the 1980s.
8. The specificity of Christian ethics in Poland (Tadeusz Ślipko, Józef Tischner, Karol Wojtyła)
9. Moral and political aspects of the birth of Solidarity Movement in 1980.
10. Present philosophical thoughts of selected Polish philosopher.